

Gros Morne Backcountry

For novice to intermediate skiers & snowshoers.

DAY 1

Depart Deer Lake for Gros Morne National Park
68km | 54mins

Meet with Parks Canada

A Parks Canada staff person will brief you on the inherent risks with winter wilderness travel and prepare you for your trip into the backcountry of Gros Morne National Park.

Ski to Bakers Brook Hut

Nestled on the wooded shoreline of Bakers Brook Pond Fjord, in a sheltered spruce and fir forest, this hut's backdrop is the spectacular mountain scenery of the Long Range.

The route to the cabin is unmarked but starts on route 430, 5km north of Rocky Harbour at the access road to the Berry Hill Campground. From there, the group will follow a combination of unplowed park roads, the Bakers Brook Falls hiking trail, and old pathways to the cabin.

Distance: 8.5 km (depending on route)
Time: 3-4 hrs (one way)
Elevation: 90m

Overnight: Bakers Brook Backcountry Hut

DAY 2

Ski and Explore

A remote backcountry experience and thrilling ski terrain!

Bakers Brook is an excellent basecamp for exploration of the gentle terrain of the coastal lowlands and is a recommended backcountry option for the aspiring backcountry skier.

For the more experienced and adventurous skiers and snowshoers with appropriate equipment, it is an excellent staging area for exploration of the fjord and mountains.

Overnight: Bakers Brook Backcountry Hut
